Performances of "The Wizard Of Oz" were held last week at Fort Niagara State Park as a fundraiser in support of the Niagara Post Theater. A joint venture of Teal's Niagara Theatre and Youngstown Community Theatre, its cast members ranged in age from age 7 to 87 years old. Live performances were held on a makeshift stage outside the Post Theater and featured attractive costumes as well as scenery.

The play itself followed the story line of the original movie, making for a great experience for audience visitors throughout the weekend.
