Mason Forever Foundation seeks scholarship applicants

The Mason Forever Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that promotes youth sports and students pursuing a degree in the health/fitness fields. The foundation was established in 2021 in honor of Mason Sawyer Montelone, a junior on the dean's list at Florida State University.

Mason was majoring in interdisciplinary medical sciences when he tragically died in a car accident on Aug. 28, 2020. Sports, physical health, mental health and education were core to his being. Mason played youth football for the Lewiston Porter Youth Football Club and travel soccer for the Niagara Pioneer Soccer Club. He also participated in soccer, basketball, wrestling and track while in middle school at Lewiston-Porter. He attended Canisius High School where he participated in soccer, rugby and wrestling. He was also a member of the New York state Catholic Champion Canisius High School football team. He enjoyed snowboarding, skiing and jet skiing.

The Mason Forever Foundation was established to support other young people who share the same passions as Mason. We would like to thank everyone that has already donated; your generous support keeps Mason alive in our hearts and memories by promoting the ideals that embodied him. More details can be found at www.masonforever.com.

The Mason Forever Foundation grants scholarships to like-minded learners who are studying in the health or fitness fields. Scholarship opportunities are available to students currently enrolled in any health/fitness program at an accredited college/university in the U.S. To be eligible, the applicant must have a minimum grade-point average of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale.

Applicants are requested to submit the following: curriculum vitae; current program and institution; degrees earned, name of institution(s) and year(s) of graduation; employment experience; three letters of recommendation regarding academic status, career commitment and fitness/health/sports commitment; and a narrative that includes: (with subtitles for each of the following four areas) personal background, sports/fitness/health experiences, community service experiences and professional goals.

All application materials must be submitted in a single envelope mailed to Mason Forever Foundation Scholarship, 190 Oliver St., Suite 300, North Tonawanda, NY 14120. Scholarship materials must be received by Aug. 10. Awards are presented on Aug. 28 of every year.
