

Lewiston Christmas Lights Parade debuts

Christmas Walk weekend wrapped Sunday night with the inaugural Lewiston Christmas Lights Parade. The one-hour event featured floats and decorated first-responder vehicles, as well as dancers, costumed characters, musical performances and local nonprofits. Families lined the roadway to watch, cheer, take pictures and collect candy.

The parade down Center Street was organized by the Niagara River Region Chamber of Commerce and directed by Jerry Wolfgang. See more photos and a video at www.wnypapers.com.

'Candy Cane Story Lane' at Old Falls Street features fun for families

Niagara University's Levesque Institute for Civic Engagement and its College of Education have teamed up with Old Falls Street USA to transform the three-block entertainment district into "Candy Cane Story Lane." For the month of December, children and their families can take a self-guided stroll along the path to read Gregg and Evan Spiridellis' charming story "Are You Grumpy, Santa?" On Saturdays, those who answer questions about the story will receive a free treat courtesy of Bryce's Snack Trailer.

In addition to the story, on Dec. 11 and 12, special events and activities will be featured, including a "Books, Balls, and Blocks" pop-up for young children at the Niagara Falls Culinary Institute from noon until 3 p.m., and a variety of interactive children's activities and outdoor performances from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m.

"Candy Cane Story Lane" is sponsored by Niagara University in partnership with Old Falls Street USA, Bryce's Snack Trailer, the Niagara Falls Culinary Institute, and the United Way of Greater Niagara.
