

REASON FOR SEASON

The First Presbyterian Church of Youngstown held an outdoor Christmas pageant on Sunday, Dec. 20. The short program (25 minutes) started at 5 p.m. with mandatory social distancing of at least 6 feet between households, and mask requirements. Families and friends watched as members of the First Presbyterian Church of Youngstown offered Christmas hymns, and children of the church acted out the birth narrative of Jesus. Although the rain came down, spirits were lifted and love shared as safely as possible.

Lighting up Youngstown

Submitted by Michelle Deutschman

Members of the Youngstown Recreation Commission and their families hope to bring more holiday spirit to the local community. Saturday, Dec. 12, had been the scheduled date for the annual Youngstown "Christmas in the Village" and children's Christmas party, where the Recreation Commission would have offered Santa visits, cookie decorating and holiday crafts.

Due to COVID-19 precautions and many community events being canceled this year, the Youngstown Recreation Commission decided to light up Falkner Park by adding two decorated trees and additional lights in the picnic shelter and along the lighted walkway.

We hope that the community will enjoy a stroll through the park during this season and maybe even have a snowball fight or build a snowman/igloo under the lights once the snow makes an appearance.

The Youngstown Recreation Commission also wants to help those in need this season and is asking anyone who visits the park to drop a few canned goods in the collection boxes that have been placed under the picnic shelter. These canned goods will be brought to the Ransomville Care-N-

Share Food Pantry, who regularly serves those in need in our community.

The Youngstown Recreation Commission is hopeful that we may be able to offer some of our regular programs in the coming year as well as offering additional outdoor events for local families. There may be new sanitizing and sign-up procedures, but we are determined to bring fun and recreation back to the community.

Dear Carrier,

The newspaper carrier's role is a vital one for it involves direct service to the public in the delivery of our product. Without a first rate delivery service all the other jobs that go into making the newspaper are incidental. We can gather the news, write it, take pictures and print it, but only you the carriers, travel through rain, sleet and snow to make sure the readers realize the effort of that work. It is a big responsibility and we depend on you not to let us down. Your dedication and hard work has earned you the gratitude and admiration of all of us at Niagara Frontier Publications and the appreciation of our readers.

Thank you for a job well done!
From the NFP Staff

Tis the season for giving, please don't forget your carrier.

Wishing you all the Joys of the Holiday Season!
