WHY PUBLIC NOTICES ARE IMPORTANT

Public notices allow citizens to monitor their government and make sure that it is working in their best interest. Independent newspapers assist in this cause by carrying out their partnership with the people's right to know through public notices. By offering an independent and archived record of public notices, newspapers foster a more trusting relationship between government and its citizens.

Newspapers have the experience and expertise in publishing public notices and have done so since the Revolutionary War. Today, they remain an established, trustworthy and neutral source that ably transfers information between government and the people.

Public notices are the lasting record of how the public's resources are used and are presented in the most efficient and effective means possible.

Jacobs joins northern border caucus

Congressman Chris Jacobs, R-NY-27, has joined the House of Representatives northern border caucus.

"As someone who represents a major section of New York's northern border, it is critical I am in a strong position to advocate for border communities and economies. Cross-border travel and tourism are major economic drivers for our area, and they have been deeply harmed by the ongoing travel restrictions between the U.S. and Canada," Jacobs said. "In addition, cross-border families and property owners have faced restrictions for nearly a year as a result of COVID-19. My first priority is working with my colleagues, the Biden administration, and our Canadian counterparts to open the U.S.-Canadian border with a safe and fair set of standards for both nations."

The House Northern Border Caucus is co-chaired by Rep. Elise Stefanik (R-NY-21) and Rep. Brian Higgins (D-NY-26). It was originally founded in 1994 and serves as an advocate and to analyze policies regarding the economic and political relationship between the U.S. and Canada.

"Western New York farmers, small businesses, major industries, and families all rely on cross-border travel and commerce. The northern border caucus will allow me to work in a bipartisan way to ensure these groups are supported by northern border policies implemented at the federal level, and I look forward to getting right to work on their behalf," Jacobs said.
