One of Western New York's most popular and well-respected local businesses is celebrating a milestone few can hardly even dream of: DiCamillo's Bakery is turning 100 years old. The company is set to reopen its newly-renovated flagship store this week at 811 Linwood Ave., Niagara Falls. The remodeled storefront features a slew of new updates. Beyond the brand-new floors, lights, ceiling and showcases, the store now has a new seating area for customers, a new gas-fired pizza oven to reheat pizza slices in-store, and a new window installation in the store's rear, allowing customers to view the production crew at work in the newly updated cake and chocolate production area. Additionally, the store will also begin producing and selling gelato ice cream.

The bakery was first founded in 1920 by Tommaso and Addolorata DiCamillo, SEE 100, continued on Page 9

EnSol plan flares up at session

Residents blast proposed soil recycling, composting facility on Pletcher Road

The leadoff public hearing to consider a roadside produce stand by Rick Washuta interests at 1815 Ridge Road was over in minutes. The plan failed to garner any comments from visitors and went on to be approved by Supervisor Steve Broderick and the board without question.

But such was not the case for the residents' statements that followed about Pletcher Road.

At issue here is concern over a site plan application submitted by Niagara Properties - EnSol Inc. - of Niagara Falls. The company has been working with the town's Planning Board and Environmental Commission over past months and wishes to create a soil recycling center and composting facility on some 10 acres of land it owns on the north side of the 1100 block of Pletcher Road.

According to the company's project description of the proposed facility, "Niagara Properties proposes to construct and operate two separate Soil Products facilities located at Pletcher Road in the Town of Lewiston, NY. The facilities are summarized as follows:

"Compost Facility: A (state Department of Environmental Conservation) Part 361-3.2 (b) (1) registered facility to compost 10,000 cubic yards of yard waste per year.

"RU/LU Soil Facility: A (DEC) Part 361-5.2(a) (7) registered facility to recycle less than 500 tons per day of restricted-Use and/or Limited Use Fill (RU/LU) (i.e.
