

Spring book sale in NT

The North Tonawanda History Museum announced its spring used book sale would take place from noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, March 5, and again from Monday, March 7, through Saturday, March 12, at the museum, 712 Oliver St.

Museum Executive Director Howard Roeske said the sale will include paperbacks on sale for 50 cents each or three for $1; and hardcovers at $1 each, or three for $2. Visitors are also welcome to purchase a bag and fill it up for $5.

Roeske also said the museum would hold its "Cabin Fever" indoor flea market from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, March 26. Featured will be items donated to the museum for fundraising, a variety of collectibles, home and craft items by outside vendors, and museum gift shop items at reduced prices.

- ✓ Week 2 - "Hope for the Hard Heart"
- ✓ Week 3 - "The Heart He Offers"
- ✓ Week 4 - "Heaven's 'Whoever' Policy"
- ✓ Week 5 - "The Last Word on Life"

The series is open to the public. For reservations, call the church office at 716-754-4945. The church is located at 505 Cayuga St., and is handicapped accessible. Parking is available on Cayuga Street or in a lot behind the church.

Gliding Stars ice show, 'Thank Goodness We're Back!'

The Gliding Stars of Western New York will present the return of their annual ice show, "Thank Goodness We're Back!" at the Northtown Center at Amherst, 1615 Manor Drive in Williamsville, at 3 p.m. Saturday, March 26.

Organizers said, "Fun for the whole family, skaters and volunteers will celebrate their return on the ice after almost two years through various routines that pay tribute to the years 1820-now."

Over 100 skaters and 150 volunteers will participate in the ice show, which brings together people who have been skating at rinks in Hamburg and Niagara Falls since October.

Tickets are $10 in advance (call 716-608-8345 to reserve) or $12 at the door. Admission is free for children ages 3 and under.

Founded in 1994, the adaptive ice skating program for individuals with disabilities, headquartered in Buffalo, now has seven chapters in four states and continues to grow.

Versus Monster Trucks at Ransomville Speedway

Saturday, Aug. 27, will mark the return of monster trucks to the Ransomville Speedway for one huge show. The Versus Monster Trucks Series will embark on Ransomville for this event suitable for all families.

Tickets will go on sale at 10 a.m. Wednesday, March 2, via www.ransomvillespeedway.ticketspice.com/5k-monster-trucks-2022.

Advanced tickets are only available online.

The program will begin at 7 p.m. with gates opening at 5 p.m. VIP track pass access will be available from 5-6:30 p.m. This show will take place rain or shine.

The trucks of Krazy Train, Plane Krazy, Bad News Travels Fast, Crushstation and Lumberjack are all expected to be in attendance. They will compete in skill competitions and freestyle sets, competing to earn a spot in the series championship event in Plattsburgh on Sept. 10.

Also on the card will be quad wars. Two of the top quad racing factions in the country will be competing for cash and bragging rights.

On the day of the show, adult tickets are $30 and kid tickets cost $15, if available.

Event talent and programming are subject to change without notice. Exclusive tour merchandise will be available at the event. For more information about the Versus Monster Trucks, visit www.versusmonstertrucks.com.

Ransomville Speedway is online at www.ransomvillespeedway.com.

New offices for Niagara Pride

Niagara Pride invites the community to stop by Friday, March 4, and check out its new office and meeting space located at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, 140 Rainbow Blvd., Niagara Falls.

"We sincerely thank Rev. Helen Harper, the clergy of St. Peter's Episcopal, and the community for their support of our agency. Niagara Pride is excited about this opportunity and to finally have a physical space where we can carry out our mission and continue serving Niagara County and WNY," said Richard Plaseczny of Niagara Pride.

Visitors are welcome to stop by from noon to 6 p.m. and discover what Niagara Pride has to offer. Plaseczny said that, due to staffing, the office would only be open to the public during days and times when certain events and programming are occurring.

"Community members are encouraged to check our Facebook site for announcements of events and locations," he said.
