

DECA finds ways to shine

someone to take the leaves out of his/her shrubs or pick up the sticks in the yard without having to ask. Perhaps your own family could benefit from someone folding a load of laundry or doing a sink full of dishes just for the beauty of it. Maybe you'd like to bake a batch of cookies and take them to some essential workers on your street who works in a nursing home, hospital, grocery store, or on the streets keeping us safe. There are so many ways to shine."

Fonte said the results of her advice "brought smiles to my face and gratitude in my heart. Never doubt the power of a teen to make a difference in our world. It's effects can be contagious and I hope they will be just that."
