WBA 2022 scholarship recipients

The Wheatfield Business Association received 11 applicants – 11 outstanding students from schools including Niagara Wheatfield, Starpoint and St. Joseph’s Collegiate Institute – for its 2022 scholarships. After consideration of all the entrants, Hunter Hodge and Evan Blatner were named the winners.

Hodge is graduating from Starpoint. He was accepted at and will attend Rochester Institute of Technology, for a dual MBA in marketing and management informational systems. Hodge serves as yearbook editor-in-chief, a class officer (treasurer), National Honor Society treasurer, foreign language club, musical club (pit band and costume), and participated in varsity swimming and diving. His weighted cumulative average is 100.51, and he has been a scholar athlete in swimming throughout high school. Hodge participated in “Lock in to Lock out Cancer” as a committee member and event coordinator, and has volunteered at Meals on Wheels and John R. Oishei Children’s Hospital of Buffalo.

Blatner is graduating from St. Joseph’s Collegiate Institute. He plans to attend Niagara University, majoring in business technology and minoring in sports management. Blatner is a member of the National Honor Society, a marking officer of the business and economics club, a member of the A-Team sports broadcasting club, and former student athlete of the month for varsity hockey. He also played travel hockey with Wheatfield Blades/Niagara Purple Eagles for the past 14 years. His weighted cumulative average is 94.51.

Niagara County to hold outdoor career fair

The Niagara County Department of Employment and Training will hold an outdoor career fair Wednesday, June 1, at Oppenheim Park for those seeking employment. More than 50 companies with open positions have signed up to take part.

“Our career fairs have a tremendous track record in matching up job seekers with employers, and the current demand of employers looking to hire has never been higher,” said Niagara County Legislator Jesse Gooch, chairman of the community service committee and a small business owner whose company has previously participated in the event. “Whether you are currently unemployed or looking for a change, the right opportunity may be waiting for you at the career fair.”

Director of Employment and Training Donald Jablonski said the event will be held from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. Wednesday, June 1, in Oppenheim Park, located at 2713 Niagara Falls Blvd., Wheatfield. Businesses will be located along the entrance driveway to display information on their company and meet with job seekers. No appointment is necessary.

“We were overwhelmed last year with employers in desperate need of employees and, a year later, that demand has only increased,” Jablonski said. “Anyone looking for a job, regardless of skill and educational level, should attend this event. There is a broad spectrum of jobs available, and our WorkSource1 team will be present to provide job seekers with services like resume writing and interview prep as they conduct their job search.”

To learn more about the career fair, including a full list of participating businesses, visit www.worksource1.com and choose career fair under the job seeker tab.
