

Holidays with HAL

Submitted by the Historical Association of Lewiston

The Lewiston Museum would like to share some of our upcoming activities with you.

First, the museum will be open for Small Business Saturday on Nov. 27 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and again on Dec. 4-5 for Christmas Walk. We have all 10 of our ornaments and many new books for your Lewiston History friends and family. And the museum will be in Christmas attire.

Next, on Dec. 11, the Historical Association of Lewiston and the First Presbyterian Church of Lewiston will be hosting a one-man play by Mike Randall – “A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens” – at the First Presbyterian Church at 505 Cayuga St. The evening starts with an old-Victorian dinner of roast pork with cranberry apple chutney, mashed potatoes, carrots, salad and desert, coffee and tea, then the play will start at 7:30 p.m. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. with dinner at 6 p.m.

Tickets are $50 for both the dinner and play and can be purchased at either the First Presbyterian Church or the Lewiston Museum. Only 150 tickets are being sold, so please call and get your tickets early. You won't want to miss this great show by Mike Randall of Channel 7, or this delicious meal – and a great event to help both The First Presbyterian Church of Lewiston and the Lewiston Museum with some much-needed upgrades to these two historic buildings.

So, as you can see, we are here to keep you up-to-date with all of the history of Lewiston and plenty of ways to spend time this winter enjoying Lewiston! Feel free to call the museum at 716-754-4214.

The Lewiston Museum is located at 469 Plain St.

Start holiday shopping early in Lewiston

Small Business Saturday will be a grand celebration of local merchants; a great reason to get out of the house and go shopping; and an opportunity to find unique holiday gifts. ...

But that's in two weeks.

For those eager to get a jump-start on the season of giving, Lewiston retailers will host their annual “Holiday Kick-Off” from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday. Participating businesses will offer discounts, refreshments and other surprises.

“This is our third annual and, I think especially this year, I hope the weather will be great. But there's a huge sense of urgency to start shopping now,” said Laura Mann Falsetti of You & Me boutique. “I think any retailer can agree that they really need to start shopping now. So, hopefully, Saturday will be super successful for us.”

She added, “It's just to get people to come to Lewiston, start their shopping early, get down here before Small Business Saturday – because that's crazy down here. Christmas Walk (the following weekend), of course, is crazy, as well.”

“We're just trying to get people to come remember us for their Christmas shopping; and come here first – before anywhere else.”

Kathy Pignatora of Inspirations on Canvas said, “We started this, like Laura said, a couple years ago – and not knowing if it would work or not. And we even did it last year; some of us pulled that together through COVID, and it was successful.”

She added, “People are looking for sales. I think most people have noticed people are already Christmas shopping – they have been for weeks.”

Sara Liberale of The Rose Hanger said, “You can avoid the holiday rush that's going to be happening during Small Business Saturday, and come up this weekend where it won't be quite as busy, but there will still be discounts. We also all have full stores ready to go with Christmas merchandise.”

Pignatora emphasized, “Our shelves are stocked.”

“Just going store to store, you'll find every store's got something going on,” she added.
