The Country Doctor has holiday decorations for sale

For many years, The Country Doctor has been known as a premier antique seller. Now, just in time for the holiday season, "All of our decorations are for sale, everything in both of the windows," antique and gift co-op manager Lynn Stephenson said.

Plus, "We have a lot of interesting gifts besides antiques. We don't just have antiques or vintage. We also have many, many things that are newer, that would be gifts and considered gifts."

Holiday planning actually began many months ago.

"We don't have a supply chain problem," Stephenson said. "We work all year collecting our Christmas purchases so that we can get them all ready for Christmas holidays; and we're totally ready and very excited to have everybody come and see what we have."

Patrons should know The Country Doctor is closing on Jan. 23, 2022, in order to accommodate building renovations. It will reopen at a later date.

The Country Doctor is located at 549 Center St.
