Wilson Lions get spooky

Wilson Lions Club held its annual pumpkin decorating contest on Saturday at the Wilson Community Library. Winners for this year's contest were: first place, Charlotte Tinder; second place, Rylee Faucett; and third place, Kenley Faucett.

The contest is an annual event, sponsored by the Wilson Lions, with cash prizes. It is open to the Wilson community (children up to the age of 12), and entries are judged on their creativity and originality. The pumpkins for decorating are free to all the contestants and were picked up at the Community Library, decorated at home and returned for judging.

This year's judges were Past District Gov. James Muscoreil, Past President Diane Muscoreil and trustees Jerome Maillet and Kathi and Cliff Stein.

Stop by the library, at 265 Young St., to see all of the contestants' entries and the winners.

For information on becoming a Lion, contact President Anne Basile at 830-4151.

Private military history book collection sale to support Niagara County Historical Society

The military book collection of David Caldwell is being sold to benefit educational programming at the Niagara County Historical Society, where Caldwell served as president of the board for many years. This is a collection of more than 500 books. Hardcover will be $5, with paperbacks selling for $2.

These are books with an emphasis on New York state and Niagara Frontier military history.

They also include historical biographies, along with American and British military themes. There will be a $5 admission charge for the sale running from 5-9 p.m. Friday, Nov. 5; and a $3 admission for the sale from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 6.

The event is being held at the 4H Training Center at the Fairgrounds on Lake Avenue in Lockport. Bring your own bag. Masks are optional. Event organizers said, "This is a once in a lifetime opportunity for all history lovers."

For more information, call the History Center at 434-7433 or email info@niagarahistory.org.
