Sunday night at the Lewiston No. 1 Fire Co. firehall, 19-year-old Shanya Davis of Niagara Falls was named the 2021-22 Peach Queen.

She received her crown from Victoria Skrlin-Kozak, who took the title in 2019. The scholarship pageant did not take place in 2020, due to coronavirus restrictions.

Davis is a psychology major at the University at Buffalo. The daughter of Kim and Ken Davis plans to graduate with a bachelor's degree in psychology in the spring of 2024 and continue on to law school to become a family law attorney specializing in child custody and divorce.

Winning the Peach Queen competition is the latest in a long list of accolades for Davis, who is a two-time recipient of the Niagara Falls Boys and Girls Club Youth of the Year Award; won the Kristina Bordelau Scholarship; participated in a United Way fundraising
