Scout donates habilitation supplies to people with disabilities

Local Girl Scout Julia Wasley just completed a Gold Award service project she titled "Craft Cupboard for Intandem," and donated her entire project to individuals with disabilities who attend the day-habilitation programs at Intandem in Niagara County.

Wasley spend over two years compiling her project, which included organizing instructional binders and flash drives with detailed directions for numerous crafting projects, as well as gathering a large assortment of yarn, holiday decorations and various other crafting supplies. She collected the supplies by soliciting donations from many companies, including 3M and Scotch.

A freshman at Niagara University, Wasley dedicated her project to her aunt Lyla, who attends the day-habilitation program at Intandem in Niagara Falls.

Intandem Chief Development Officer Larry Sorokes expressed appreciation on behalf of the agency: "We are very grateful to Julia for all of the time and effort she put into this donation, as well as the many local people who contributed to her project. Since many of the individuals we support are currently homebound and unable to be out in the community, her gift is especially timely. We will begin sharing these crafting projects and supplies throughout our programs immediately."

Vets chicken BBQ postponed to 2021

The Leo Curtis American Legion Post No. 830 in Ransomville and Lake Ontario VFW Post No. 313 in Youngstown announced recently they have decided to "postpone" this year's veterans chicken barbecue due to circumstances beyond their control regarding the COVID-19 pandemic.

"We felt it was in the best interest for all that we postpone this year's event," organizers said.

Both posts said planning is underway to host its "Spring 2020 BBQ" - the third annual - with a date still to be announced. "Please be sure to watch for the 'new rescheduled' barbecue date, here in the Sentinel!"

The American Legion and the VFW posts said they would like to extend their appreciation to the community "for all your support; and hope to see you at the barbecue in the spring!"
