Gather renderings by James D. Fittante RA, AIA/Fittante Architecture PC

Gather closed temporarily for renovations

Gallo Restaurants proprietor Michael Hibbard recently closed Gather by Gallo for renovations. The restaurant, at 453 Center St., is expected to reopen later this summer. Architect Jim Fittante said the plan is to make the exterior lighter and brighter – a look similar to the Lewiston Restaurant of yesteryear. Windows, lights, signage and siding will be upgraded.

Over at Gallo

Gallo Coal Fire Kitchen, meanwhile, will host two special summer events at the corner of Center and North Fourth streets:

- “Gallo and the Ghost” is an art expo slated for 7 p.m. Friday, July 29. The event will feature art, music, libations and special guests. Tickets can be purchased online at www.gallorestaurants.com. A portion of the proceeds will benefit Heart, Love & Soul.

- “Electrify Lewiston” is an electric vehicle showcase, curated by National Grid, scheduled for 3-6 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 6. A press release said, “Will your next car be electric? Bring your questions, your appetite, and the family to our downtown Lewiston patio where you’ll mix with EV drivers, auto representatives, charging installers, e-Bike and e-scooter vendors for an afternoon of community conversation and free fun!”

NCCC to host information nights

Niagara County Community College will host a series of division specific informational nights to introduce prospective students to the programs and services available at the college. The events will consist of presentations, classroom visits and a campus tour. Students will be able to check the status of their application, or apply if they have not yet done so.

The information nights will run from 5-7 p.m. on:

- ✓ Monday, July 18: Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences
- ✓ Tuesday, July 19: Business and STEM
- ✓ Wednesday, July 20: Nursing, physical and allied health
- ✓ Thursday, July 21: Hospitality, baking & culinary arts

The first three sessions will be held at NCCC (3111 Saunders Settlement Road, Sanborn). The July 21 session for hospitality, baking and culinary arts will be held at the Niagara Falls Culinary Institute, located at 28 Old Falls St., Niagara Falls.
