BNL big fans of Hibbard's

concert appearance. In July of 2018 – in front of a sold-out Artpark crowd – BNL ended their famous ballad “If I Had A Million Dollars” with a customized tribute ending, singing, “I’d be rich – rich and creamy like Hibbard’s Custard!”

When BNL’s custard debuted the following summer, Hibbard’s announced the first organization to receive funds would be Buffalo’s Gerard Place.

Trunzo said BNL was excited to team up – and to workshop a new flavor.

“It was their collaboration. They wanted something that was going to wake you up,” she said.

BNL drummer Tyler Stewart deadpanned, “I specifically stated that the only flavor we were interested in is one involving coffee! (Laughs)”

“Yeah, both Ty and I,” Robertson said. “We were kind of like any time that’s available on an ice cream menu or a custard menu, we always tend to go that way,” Stewart said. “They came up with the nice ‘Big Bang Theory’ tie-in, as well. The ‘Big Barenaked Bang’ is pretty nice.”

Robertson said, “We actually tried several flavors. We were involved in selecting the final recipe. We just wanted it to be very coffee-forward, interesting, bold; and I think what we came up with was delicious and sweet, but also a really strong espresso taste.”

That proceeds go to charity – well, that’s the cherry on top.

“That would be the chocolate-covered espresso bean on top,” Robertson noted.

He added, “Kris was just telling us they’ve raised $8,000 from that flavor, so far, which is awesome.”

“That’s amazing,” Stewart said. HART Executive Director Christine O’Hara and Cheryl Pfohl collected a giant ceremonial check (and an actual donation in the amount of $3,000).

“The purpose of having their flavor was to donate proceeds to charitable organizations,” Trunzo emphasized.

A couple dozen fans came by to watch the unannounced video shoot – and got to shout “Bang!” during the song’s chorus.

Family-owned and seasonally operated since 1939, Hibbard’s Original Frozen Custard is located at 105 Portage Road. For more information, specials and social media links, visit www.hibbardscustard.com.

BNL brought its “Last Summer on Earth” tour to Artpark Tuesday night. The show was originally scheduled for 2020, and then 2021, but was twice postponed due to the coronavirus pandemic.

Opening acts included Toad the Wet Sprocket and the Gin Blossoms. For more information, or for tickets to upcoming shows, visit www.artpark.net.
