Barbecue fans could watch the experts compete or visit the vendors.

Smokin' weekend

Tom and Diane Balwin of Lewiston's pig always attracts attention.

Saturday's grand champion became Sunday's vendor, giving everyone a taste of the best.

Shirleen Hicks-Mullen of Wheatfield, known locally as the Sweet Potato Pie Queen, provided dessert to go with the barbecue.

It was a dream weekend for barbecue lovers at the Smokin' Eagles International BBQ Festival at Gateway Harbor of the Tonawandas.

Grand champion for the event was Skin and Bones BBQ, the team of Rooster and Lisa Roberts, second and third from left. They are shown with festival organizer Roy "Honcho" Gregory, and Joe and Carlene Phelps.
